

*Jed 477*CLASSIFICATION SECRET

COUNTRY East Germany REPORT NO.   25X1A

TOPIC Information on AAA Unit Boerner in Altwarz

EVALUATION  	PLACE OBTAINED  
DATE OF CONTENT  	DATE PREPARED  
DATE OBTAINED  	NO November 1953
REFERENCES  	25X1C
PAGES   1	ENCLOSURES (NO. &amp; TYPE)  
REMARKS  

25X1

25X1X

25X1

1.   AAA Unit Boerner which had returned from Berlin was engaged in preparing its quarters in Altwarz. Training activity was light. The current stage of training involving aircraft recognition service, instruction on patterns of attack and the armament of different types of aircraft and the missions of an AA platoon was allegedly being concluded.

25X1C

2.

25X1C 3. Examinations were being held by the driving school unit which was also quartered in Altwarz. The unit was in the strength of about 200 men. Its motor vehicle equipment included trucks  

25X1A

25X1C

  Comment. The report indicates that there has been no change in the ongoing occupation of the KVP installation in Altwarz since early October.

CLASSIFICATION SECRET